The Winnipeg Nor-Wester was sold out by the sheriff on Friday to W. T. Bell of Fort William. The deal is generally regarded as a scheme on the part of certain directors to get rid of a heavy indebtedness that has been pressing on the company. Although a majority of the creditors are left in the cold, some think the deal will give the paper a little longer lease of life.

The group numbers 64, and includes most of the representative old timers of the place. All thing, considered they are not such a very hard looking crowd; but how much of their present good appearance is due to Mr. Mother's art it is not for the BULLETIN to say.

JAS. MOWAT, of Otter creek near Lake St. Ann, was in town last week. Farming operations have commenced at the lake and spring is further advanced than at Edmonton, although there is still a great deal of ice in the lake. Geese are numerous in the lake. The complainant showed that the horse had been worked by Bell, and it was upon this ground that he based the charge of theft. The case was dismissed with costs against the complainant.

The gospel temperance meeting under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. of Edmonton, on Sunday afternoon in Hourston's hall was very well attended. The chair was taken by Rev. A. Addresses were given by R. J. Manson and Alex. Wilson. Duet, "Learn to say no," by Miss Rogers and Mr. McAdam. Address by Rev. G. W. Dean. A collection was taken up to defray the cost of the hall. Another meeting will be held a month from yesterday.

They find that a grade of two per cent or less to the flat can be secured, with about a mile and a half of new track without bridging or heavy grading work. They are now preparing a profile.

JAS. ROSS, M. L. A. for Moose Jaw, who recently became a member of the Northwest executive, was speaker of the late assembly and is the senior member of the Northwest legislature, having sat for Moose Jaw continuously in the old Northwest council and the present assembly ever since 1883. The continued confidence shown in Mr. Ross by his constituents in five successive election contests, and the confidence shown in him by the late assembly in electing him speaker and in re-electing him after he had resigned, is sufficient evidence as to Mr. Ross' faithfulness and ability in the discharge of his public duties, and a sufficient guarantee not only as to his fitness for his present position but as to the advantage to the Territories in having such a man in such a position.

On Friday J. C. C. Bremner, of Clover Bar, happened a serious accident, as he was driving up Third street towards the H. B. Store. When opposite Dr. Braithwaite's a bicycle and rider coming down frightened the horses. As they started the pole fell down and the horses became uncontrollable. After the horses had ran several hundred yards Mr. Bremner jumped from the rig and fortunately was not injured. The buggy was badly smashed before the horses were stopped. One of the horses got completely away and has not since been heard of by Mr. Bremner. This accident brings up in forcible fashion the bicycle question, which has become serious in many large towns. The number of bicycles in Edmonton is very large this season, and is steadily increasing. That they frighten horses is unquestionable. It is impossible that horses generally running on the range or on a farm can become accustomed on short notice to the strange combination of man-or woman-and vehicle. A runaway horse is a danger not only to his driver but to the public. The streets are for the use of bicycles as well as of other vehicles, but wheelmen should consider the danger to which they expose drivers of horses and the public generally by a sudden appearance close to a horse and rig. Just as horsemen are not allowed to ride or drive to endanger or discommode the public. So wheelmen should be compelled to give horses a wide berth in passing and to give proper warning of their approach, and besides should be limited to a moderate speed when on a well travelled street in town. The tendency of any person or persons to monopolize either the street or the sidewalk should be kept in check.

A. W. GRIERSON arrived from Thornbury, Ont., on Thursday's train to reside at Edmonton this summer.

SUPR. McILREE, assistant commissioner of police, arrived on Thursday's train on a tour of inspection, and visited Fort Saskatchewan on Friday.

Mrs. A. R. B. Hearn, Mrs. Jellet and Mr. Stephens left on a shooting and picnic trip to lake Menawan on Saturday.

C. SANDISON and W. Alexander left on Friday for the Athabasca at the mouth of the Pembina to mine gold. This is a field hitherto unworked. They took out lumber with which to build a boat on the Pembina.

The Edmonton minstrels gave a performance in the school house Fort Saskatchewan on Thursday evening last. There was a small attendance, but the performance was good and was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

STAREOPTICAN views of the World's fair at Chicago will be given in Robertson hall on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Royal temple of temperance, commencing at 8 o'clock.

J. KNOWLES, of Rabbit Hill, wintered eighteen hives of bees last winter without loss. He brought the hives out of the wintering cellar on Thursday, April 18th, and the bees are now doing well. He did not put any fire in the cellar all winter.

THE SPUR TRACK.

The following telegram was received on Friday by the town solicitor in reply to the telegram sent on Thursday in regard to the spur track:

MONTREAL, 18th April, 1895.

Messrs. BECK & EMERY, Edmonton.

Maximum gradients will have to be considered in connection with curvature, distance and other considerations. If you will send levels and sketch plan illustrating proposition, will decide whether justified in sending engineer to examine; but company cannot make agreement extending beyond September of next year in any case.

Yours truly,
W. C. VAN HORNE.

DROWNED.

Telegrams were received this morning announcing the death by drowning at Calgary of Mrs. A. L. Johnstone, eldest daughter of Thomas Taylor, H. B. Co. officer in charge of the post at Lake St. Ann. The accident occurred yesterday evening about eight o'clock at the Bow Marsh bridge, which was quite close to the dwelling of Mr. E. Taylor, manager of the H. B. store, Calgary, brother of Mrs. Johnstone, with whom she resided. Mr. Taylor was absent at church at the time. It is supposed that Mrs. Johnstone was walking on the ice of the river near the bridge, the ice generally being still firm. But in some places it had been cut away during the winter, in process of repairing the bridge. In these places it was thin, and it was here that Mrs. Johnstone broke through. A telegram received at noon says that on account of the ice in the river being still firm, it will be difficult or impossible to recover the body for some time. Mr. Fred. Taylor, of the H. B. store Edmonton, younger brother of the deceased, has gone to lake St. Ann to inform his parents of the accident. Mrs. Johnstone was well known in Edmonton, having resided here for some years before removing to Winnipeg. She leaves five small children.

THE BYE-ELECTIONS.

The result of the four bye-elections which occurred on Wednesday are a puzzle as well as a surprise in many particulars. The Manitoba school question was forced to the front in all cases and in all cases those who forced it got the worst of the fight. Of the four constituencies, Haldimand is strongly Protestant, Vercheres entirely French Catholic, Quebec East, Irish Catholic and Antigonish Scotch, Irish and English Catholic. This constituency was represented by the late premier and therefore must have been conservative. All possible capital was made out of the stand taken by the conservative government on the question of remedial legislation for Manitoba; the cause was aided by Sir C. H. Tupper, who is reported to have roundly denounced the "Protestant bigots" of Ontario, and to have exercised the quality for which the Tupper family is especially famed to its fullest capacity in the effort to win; but the liberal candidate was returned by the substantial majority of 114. Quebec East, the seat of the famed McGreevy and therefore undoubtedly conservative, has elected an independent by a small majority of 9; but this was probably due to the failure of McGreevy's barrel rather than to any such trifling matter as Manitoba schools. Vercheres which had been liberal, again returned a liberal; although, as in Antigonish, every effort was made to make capital for the government on the school question, by no less a personage than J. A. Ouimet, minister of public works. Haldimand returned its former member Dr. Montague, now secretary of state. Under ordinary circumstances the return of a cabinet minister in his own constituency is not remarkable even when his majority is increased. But this was a special case. Just as a dead set was made against the liberal candidates in the Catholic constituencies on the school question, a dead set was made against the return of Dr. Montague by the use of the Protestant cry in this notoriously ultra Protestant constituency; with the result that his majority has been enormously increased over any majority ever gained by any candidate in the county before. It really looks as if the Catholics—French and English speaking—whom the conservatives expected to bind securely to them by their remedial order, do not trust their intentions; and that the Protestants of Haldimand either believe that the government does not intend to back up the celebrated order by legislation—as the Dr. assured them was the case—or they have decided to let Protestantism go in favor of partyism. It is just possible that neither Protestants nor Catholics are quite as ready to fly at each others' throats about religion as many of their leaders have been trying to make the public believe, and that instead of them anxiously awaiting the word that shall plunge them into deadly conflict, they are waiting for these same leaders, or those who aspire to be leaders, to exercise their talents in securing that most desirable settlement of the difficulty—peace with honor, instead of stirring up religious strife for political advantage.

BEAVER LAKE TRAILS.

A recent issue of the South Edmonton News publishes copies of three petitions asking for four different trails or parts of trails across the Beaver hills, addressed to the M. L. A. for Victoria district, and makes these petitions the basis of an attack upon the action of the M. L. A. for Edmonton district in regard to these trails; charging in particular that he has opened or attempted to open trails that do not lead direct to South Edmonton. Admitting for the moment that this is a crime in all possible circumstances, it is a crime of which he must plead not guilty in this case. The first road that was ever made across the Beaver hills was arranged for at a public meeting held in South Edmonton, and was cut by South Edmonton men. It merely continued the road already existing from East Edmonton or South Edmonton or Edmonton to Cooking lake in the hills, across the rest of the hills, and was only intended for a winter trail. It was found to be unsuitable for a summer trail owing to the nature of the shore of Hastings lake, which was followed, and the low swampy ground lying between Cooking lake and Hastings lake. But it showed the possibility of a summer trail, and in response to the request of a number of settlers living at the southwest corner of Beaver lake, a trail was cut from Katchemoot creek, about the line between sections 24 and 25, township 50, range 20 to the south shore of Cooking lake over dry ground all the way, and from that point following the shore of Cooking lake and the Cooking lake trail to South Edmonton. That trail was travelled last summer, and last fall some work was done on it shortening it considerably. It carried a great deal of travel last winter and is open for travel and is being travelled with wagons at the present time. Its starting point at the Beaver lake end between range 19 and 20 is on the first road allowance that passes south of Beaver lake, to which road allowance all travel from east of the southern part of the lake would have to come unless a special survey around the end of the lake were made, and as that would only be a mile and a quarter away from the road allowance, it is not likely that such special survey would be granted by the Dominion government. How the interests of the people of South Edmonton or of Beaver lake have been injuriously affected by the opening of this trail it is for the News to explain, as well as how the interests of both localities are to be advanced by attempting to create the impression in the public mind that such a trail does not exist, or by advocating the spending of money in opening other trails—having the same western terminus and being only a few miles apart in their eastern commencement,—which is urgently required for the improvement of the trail already in existence. The present trail is the most direct and most practicable route for settlers east, south and southwest of Beaver lake, which includes the great bulk of the Beaver lake country, to follow to South Edmonton. This was the trail in respect of which the first of the three petitions published by the News was presented; the only one of the three to which any practical response could be made up to the present time. A practical response was made and both South Edmonton and Beaver lake received the benefit last winter; a benefit which would increase from year to year if the road were improved from time to time as it should be, and as no doubt it will be; an improvement which the News seems anxious to prevent.

As to the second petition, for the cutting of two new trails to the east end of Hastings lake for the accommodation of certain settlers living on the west side of the lake, it is quite proper that this should be done when there is money to spare for the purpose; but considering the fact that the first road cut from Hastings lake eastward is only four miles apart at their greatest distance, and that the starting point of the southernmost is only two miles from the starting point of the present trail, the need for them is not quite so pressing as the News would like its readers to believe.

The third petition published by the News alludes to a proposed trail north of Cooking lake, an exploration for which was made by R. A. McKenzie, of Logan post office. The petition states that "we the undersigned do understand that this direct road would have been opened during Mr. Oliver's term of office, but for his opposition to a road terminating in South Edmonton, his own interests being centered in North Edmonton." As the petition has gone somewhat out of the usual course of petitions it may be well to enlighten the understanding of the signers and the public concerned in this proposed trail. The Beaver lake settlers on northeast and west sides,—there being at the time very little settlement south of the centre of the lake—requested Mr. Oliver to open the 14th base line across the Beaver hills, which line passes through Edmonton and strikes Beaver lake about two miles south of its northern extremity. At a meeting of the settlers of both sides of the lake, held on the east side, Mr. McKenzie was selected to make the exploration and was instructed by the meeting to follow the base line as closely as possible. He made the exploration and reported that he had found a practicable route, which however started between three and four miles south of the base line, and finally crossed it to the north side some place in range 22 and came to Edmonton—or South Edmonton—by the Clover Bar trail. No trail crossing the Beaver hills could be more favorable to the interests of Edmonton against those of South Edmonton than this one. Certainly it was more favorable than the present one by way of Cooking lake; therefore the project was not allowed to drop for the reason given by the petitioners. The trail was not opened because the route was not satisfactory to the people living east of the lake, who would have been taken six miles out of their way as compared with a route by the base line, in order to use it. Since that time the population has increased around the lake, and it may be that the population and business of the west side would warrant the opening of that road now, but unless some other and shorter road were given the people on the east side, where the settlement has increased still more largely than on the west, it would still be a rank injustice to them to make them travel that six miles out of their way.

The responsibility of directing expenditure in the opening up of new routes of trade and travel and settlement in a new and progressive country such as the Edmonton district is a grave one. It requires the best attention the several M. L. A.'s interested can give it both in the object and manner of the expenditure—not to see that legitimate interests are not prejudiced and that the limited amount of money available is made to go as far as possible in the public benefit. There is properly a constant effort to do an evident impossibility,—namely to please everybody, and to make a limited amount of money do an unlimited amount of work. It is however necessary at times to recognize this impossibility and to make a choice between displeasing some body and doing the best that can be done under the circumstances in the general interest, in the place, amount and manner of the expenditures. To expect to get along without fault finding would be foolish in a world where fault is found even with the plan of creation. It is some consolation to know that in many cases—like that of the News—the amount of the fault finding is the measure of the ignorance of the fault finder.

SPRUCE GROVE.

Seeding is now in full swing, a number of farmers having sowed their wheat last week. The land is in prime condition for the seed. A much larger acreage than usual will be sown this year. Several new settlers have arrived here this season. In most cases they have rented farms and intend buying C. P. R. or other lands, homesteads being somewhat scarce here.

On Saturday last Samuel J. Eccles was elected overseer for statute labor and fire district comprising township 52, range 27, west of 4th meridian.

The supply of hay has become almost exhausted and the prairie is pretty much burned over, consequently stock are eagerly searching for new grass, which is not so well advanced as could be wished for.

Notwithstanding the good crops grown here last season, seed grain is in good demand just now; potatoes are more than plentiful.

ALL SAINTS CHURCH EASTER MEETING.

The annual Easter meeting of the above church was held in the church on Tuesday 16th April, Rev. A. Stinson, rector, in the chair. The financial statement was read and adopted. Dr. Braithwaite was nominated by the rector as his warden for the ensuing year. Mr. G. R. F. Kirkpatrick was elected people's warden. The following vestrymen were elected: Messrs. Graydon, Foster, Emory, Lines, Slooock, Chalmers, and Rev. C. B. Beck. Votes of thanks were tendered to the retiring warden, Mr. Hearn as leader of the choir, the choir, Mr. Hearn as organist, and to Mr. Sutherland also to the Willing Workers for their kind assistance during the year. A committee composed of Messrs. Emory, Hearn, Graydon and Lines, with the warden, was appointed to report to a special meeting to be held on Tuesday, 23rd inst., re. site for a new church. It is the intention to erect during the coming summer a brick church at a cost of about $5,000. At the close of the meeting Mr. F. H. Andrews, organist was presented with a purse of $25.

STALLION SHOW.

The annual spring stallion show of the Edmonton Agricultural Society was held on the grounds adjoining the Columbia hotel on Friday afternoon. The show was smaller in numbers than in some previous years but included some better horses than were ever seen in Edmonton before, many of them new importations. In the heavy draught class there were five horses shown, two were Clydes owned by P. H. Winter, imported from England, one a Percheron owned by Mr. Bechard, St. Albert, one a shire owned by Geo. Hutton. The first prize was taken by Geo. Hutton's "Woodland Chief" and the second by W. J. Suffer's "Gold Dust," two extra fine horses, but scarcely suited for showing in the same class. Only one general purpose horse was shown, a handsome animal, owned by Alf. Brown. P. H. Winter had an imported English thoroughbred on the ground, a very handsome animal. No prize was offered in his class as such horses are not yet numerous in the Edmonton district. In roadsters three animals were shown, M. McCauley's "Blackthorn," which took first prize, Tindall's "Chief Good Enough," which took second and a bay horse owned by W. H. Stephens. The three roadsters then went to the race track for a trial of speed. Two heats were trotted, both of which were won easily by "Blackthorn." Stephens horse took the second prize. There was a fair attendance both at the show and the trial. The weather was as fine as could be desired for the purpose of the day.

EXORBITANT RAILWAY CHARGES.

Montreal Trade Bulletin: The way in which the C. P. R. is ruling Manitoba with a rod of iron is well illustrated in its exorbitant charges on short—very short—hauls. Some time ago the Trade Bulletin reported that American buyers were scouring Manitoba for farm seed, and making large purchases. But what was the surprise of the farmers when they found that the C. P. R. rate of freight from Regina to Niche, a distance of only about 1½ miles, was 7c per 100 lbs, thereby reducing the price of their seed. The proposterous nature of this charge will be better appreciated when it is considered that the Great Northern Railway furnished the cars at Regina, and hauled the seed from that point to Duluth for about 18c per 100 lbs, a distance of between 350 and 400 miles, while the C. P. R. exacts 7c for 1½ miles. Who suffers for this exorbitant rate? None other than the Manitoba farmer, concerning whose welfare the C. P. R. has always appeared so solicitous. Is it any wonder that Manitoba is so sparsely settled when such repellent measures at one of the most important gateways of Manitoba are adopted by a corporation whose interest it should be to attract rather than drive away immigration?

The C. P. R. has just issued a special joint through freight tariff from Winnipeg, Portage la Prairie and Brandon, in connection with the Columbia and Kootenay Steam Navigation company, the Naskasp and Slocan railway and the Columbia and Kootenay railway. Following are the rates per 100 pounds, exclusive of marine insurance, from the points above named, to Naskasp, Robson, Trail Creek Slocan, Kootenay Crossing, Forty-Nine Mile Creek, Nelson, Ainsworth, Hendry Balfour, Pilot Bay, Kinslow, first class, 195; second class, 174; third class, 152; fourth class, 125; fifth 118. To Beaver Creek and Waneta, first class, 210; second class, 189; third class, 167; fourth class, 140; fifth class, 133. To Summit, Slocan Lake, Rosebery, New Denver and Three Forks, first class, 240; second class, 212 third class, 182; fourth class, 148; fifth class, 130.
